

14 TED SHOEBRIDGE

Junior, 195, 5-10, Lyndhurst, N. J.

"Shoe" lived up to all expectations last year as a sophomore, fracturing passing records left and right. He tied Bill Zban's career mark for the most touchdown passes and he did it in just one season. He set new marks for most passes attempted and completed in a season, most yards passing, most yards total offense and most touchdown passes for one season. He also set the single game standard for yards passing with 312 against Ohio University. It was, indeed, quite a sophomore season. Shoebridge also has the size and strength to pose a real running threat any time he carries the ball on the option. Practically all coaches of opposing teams last season acclaimed Shoebridge as one of the finest young quarterbacks in the country. He is a bright, intelligent young man and an excellent playcaller. With expected help up front Shoebridge could have a banner year. "Ted is an excellent football player" says Coach Tolley, "and in general, a real outstanding athlete in every respect."

RICK TOLLEY

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Marshall's head football coach has firmly taken hold of his team after guiding the Herd to a 3-7 record as "acting" head coach last season. Taking over in an acting capacity under less than ideal circumstances just four days prior to fall practice last year, Tolley faced a monumental task. He needed coaches, players and an overhaul of team morale after a summer that had rocked the football program to its foundations. He brought his coaching staff up to full strength but he never could get enough players together to cope with the schedule. Had the team won ONE game it would have been regarded as a modern miracle because few teams win football games these days with just 32 able-bodied players. But after an electrifying 21-16 win over a solid Bowling Green team, which snapped a 27 game, 3 year winless streak, the "wafer-thin" Herd came back to win another and then another. Marshall proved the homecoming win over the Falcons was no fluke by rapping Kent State at Kent the following week by 31-20. Then, with confidence restored in their ability to win, they frolicked to a 38-7 pasting of East Carolina. In the season's finale, Tolley's charges came within seconds of whipping vaunted Ohio U., going down by 38-35. The Bobcats scored the final touchdown with five seconds left.

Hebrews 9:27

"And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment."

I Thessalonians 4:16-17

“For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.”

Hebrews 9:27-28

“And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him.”

Matthew 7:26-27

“Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and it fell – and great was its fall.”

Matthew 24:44

“For this reason you also must be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will.”

Matthew 24:37

“For the coming of the Son of Man will be just like the days of Noah.”

Matthew 24:38-39

“For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be.”

Genesis 7:15-16

“So they went into the ark to Noah, by twos of all flesh in which was the breath of life. Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered as God had commanded him; and the LORD closed it behind them.”

Matthew 7:21-22

“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven will enter. Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?’”

Matthew 7:23

“And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.’”

Jonathan Edwards

“There are many who cannot be awakened by the most solemn warnings and awful threatenings of the Word of God – the most alarming discourses from the pulpit, and the most awakening and awful providence – but all will be thoroughly awakened by the sound of the last trumpet and the appearance of Christ to judgment.”

Jonathan Edwards

“All sorts will then be filled with most amazing terrors from apprehensions of truth, and seeing things as they are, when ‘the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men (such as were the most lofty and stout-hearted, most ready to treat the things of religion with contempt) shall hide themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains, and say to the mountains and rocks, ‘Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; for the great day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?’”

(Edwards, 31)

II Corinthians 13:5a

“Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves!”

II Peter 1:10-11

“Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall, and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.”
