

Sir Edward Clarke

“As a lawyer I have made a prolonged study of the evidences for the events of the first Easter day. For me, the evidence is conclusive, and over and over again in the high court I have secured the verdict on evidence not nearly so compelling. Inference follows on evidence, and a truthful witness is always artless and disdains effect; the gospel evidence for the resurrection is of this class, and as a lawyer I accept it unreservedly as the testimony of truthful men to facts they were unable to substantiate.”

S. Lewis Johnson

“The Resurrection is God’s ‘Amen’ to Christ’s statement, ‘It is finished!’”

Mark 16:1

“When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, brought spices, so that they might come and anoint Him.”

Luke 24:1

“But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared.”

John 20:1

“Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and saw the stone already taken away from the tomb.”
